New Beginnings = New Hope

My name is Jason Pritchard and five years ago I found myself at rock bottom of an 18 year addiction to numerous drugs. I was using cocaine, amphetamines, and opiates on a daily basis. I went to jail and God met me there at my lowest point. I heard through other offenders about Mark Mitchell, Tri-cities Recovery, and The Teen Challenge Program. I completed my sentence on that charge and was released. I tracked Mark down and told him I was interested in going to Teen Challenge. We started working on my case and I was accepted to the program located in the Shenandoah Valley. Two days before I was to leave a federal indictment came down for my arrest. I was sentenced to a total of 5 years combined between federal and state. While I was in prison I completed a ministerial program to receive my license to preach and teach. I led Christian offender church services and studies. I mentored and prayed for many of the Christian brothers who were facing struggles of their own. This gave me great insight into the mindset and daily struggles of the offender population coupling this with my own background has given me a very unique skill set. I stayed in touch with Mark and communicated my desire to return to Bristol, Va. and be involved in the process of helping others that are struggling with the same kinds of problems that had held me in bondage for almost two decades. I am now out of prison and back at Tri-cities Recovery leading weekly meetings. I want to express my thanks and appreciation to all who are involved with Tri-cities Recovery and Teen Challenge none of this would have been possible if not for your support and prayers. I have now been drug free for five years and two months. This brings to mind two scriptures first is (John 8:36) "So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. (NIV) The second Scripture is (Matthew 9:37-38). Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field". You are the tools of God which have made it possible for us to go forth as these called harvesters.

Thank You
God Bless
