“TRANSFORMING BROKEN LIVES”

Jamie

Even though as a young teenager I accepted Jesus Christ as my personal Savior, I struggled with depression, drug, and alcohol abuse. Throughout my life, time after time my lifestyle repeatedly destroyed my family, finances, jobs, and self esteem. I made promises to myself, family members, and God that I would quit the old life styles and become a better person. Each time unable to keep my promises because of the strongholds that the drugs, alcohol, and sin had in my life. Each time lowering my self-esteem and a greater sense of failure as a husband, father and as a person in general.

On October 17, 2010, I attempted to take my own life. The devil had me convinced that it was the only way to be free from the pain I was going through and what I was putting my family through.

I have now chosen to make my Savior Jesus Christ not only my personal Savior but the Lord over my life.

The things I destroyed through the sin in my life are now being restored thanks be to God, my loving wife and children.

Tri-Cities Recovery has provided me with support and insight on strengthening my relationship with my Lord Jesus Christ.
